Joint Stand

"Costume & Décor Marketplace"

Present your products to costume directors, wardrobe masters and other experts! For the third time already, SHOWTECH will be the international industry meeting place for everything to do with costumes, equipment and make-up. With the large range of information available at the trade show, it is well worth a visit for professionals: lectures and workshops at the conference, the costume makers' symposium, a project show by wardrobe masters schools as well as product information at the trade show stands. Take advantage of this platform for your company to win new customers and to meet up with existing clients!

The joint stand area "Costume & Décor Marketplace" offers you full trade fair participation at just € 2,550 plus VAT.
